

Sri Dhananjay Debbarma was born on the 31st January, 1961 into a middle-class Tripuri family in Ramdayal village of khowai sub-division in the erstwhile west Tripura District.

He completed his degree in Arts from Calcutta university and joined to the Govt. Service as Inspector, ss under the Finance Dept. in 1985.

He was inducted to the Tripura civil service in 1998 and served at various position under the Govt. of Tripura.

He worked as Block Development officer in remote Block chawmanu and Manu under Dhalai District, Tripura. The poverty eradication and village connectivity by all weather road were the top most priority of the Government during the period from 1999-2008. The National Food for work Programme was launched in chawmanu RD Block as one of the most backward block of Tripura state in 2004 with the objective to provide additional resources apart from the resources available under the SGRY scheme so as to enable the poor people to ensure Food security during lean Period. The NFFW Programme was successfully implemented in chawmanu RD Block in 2004-05.

The rural connectivity is one of the key priorities of the Govt. Rural connectivity in way of all-weather road is vital to socio-economic development of the villagers.

It is apparent that there were only 5 (five) village panchayats in chawmanu RD Block connected by all-weather roads till 2004 out of 14 panchayat.

It was felt by the Block Administration that there was a need to formulate a short-term and long-term planning to connect the unconnected panchayat and habitations of the Block and according a Master plan for Rural connectivity was prepared and submitted to the Govt. in 2005. As many as 03 (three) more village panchayat namely East chawmanu, East Govinda bari and west Govinda bari were brought under connectivity by all weather road in 2006. By the end of 2011 all 14 panchayat of chawmanu RD Block are connected by all weather roads, although Sri Debbarma left the chawmanu Block in July, 2006.

He also functioned as Sub-Treasery officer and sub-Register, sabroom, south Tripura.

During his tenure as DCM, Mohanpur Sri D. Debbarma functioned as Executive Magistrate and many cases under 107 Cr.Pc were disposed.

While working as inquiring Authority under Rule-14 of the CSC CCA Rules, 1965 in different offices like- TRTC, TTAADC, RD Panchayat Department Sri D. Debbarma disposed many cases of the Departmental Proceedings.
