Direction for Question Nos. 28, 29 and 30.

Read the following passage carefully. The passage is followed by three questions based on it. Alternative answers have been given for each question. Select the most suitable answer from the alternatives.

PASSAGE

Dreams are the sunrise streamers heralding a new day of scientific progress, another forward surge. Every forward step man takes, in any field of life, is first taken along the dreamy paths of imagination. Poets are dreamers, but it would be wrong to assume that the dreams of poet have no practical value beyond the realm of literary diversion. The truth is that poets are just as practical as people who build bridges or look into microscopes; and just as close to reality and truth. Only that they are ahead of their time, while engineers and scientists are rooted to their contemporary time. The poet says to the scientist, "Here, I give you a flash of the future." The wise scientiest thanks him, and takes that flash of the future and makes it over into a fibre of today. The automobile was not dug out of the ground like a nugget of gold, it was first envisioned in a dream of a poet. Afterward, long afterward, the practical-minded engineers caught up with what had been created by winging fantasy.

- 28. According to the passage, dreams are useful to the world because:
 - (A) Unless one dreams, one cannot be a scientist
 - (B) Only after one dreams of something, the thing can be given a concrete shape
 - (C) Dreams refresh the mind of a scientist
 - (D) Dreams help one to write poetry in a scientific way
- 29. Which of the following statements is true according to the passage?
 - (A) Poets and scientists do the same thing
 - (B) Scientists should attach little importance to poets' imagination
 - (C) In the field of worldly progress, the task of a poet and that of an engineer are complementary to each other
 - (D) All poets are scientists in the making
- 30. Which of the following statements is not true according to the passage?
 - (A) Poets pave the way for the achievements of engineers
 - (B) What a poet dreams of today, a scientists will turn it into reality tomorrow
 - (C) The passage unambiguously exalts the faculty of the poet to dream
 - (D) Dreams retard the progress of the world considerably.

and scientists are routed to their contemp. TRAP with poet says to the scientists. He routed
